Literacy Grant from Dollar General

On May 10, 2018, the Friends of the West Milford Township Library (FoWMTL) were awarded a $2,000 grant from the Dollar General Literacy Foundation Summer Reading program. The FoWMTL were one of only five organizations in New Jersey to be awarded the grant. Awarded funds were used to purchase a second literacy workstation from AWE Learning for the Children's Room. The second workstation will be used for Project Excel, a new component of the Library’s Summer Reading Club. Pictured left to right above are Ricardo Pino, Director of the Library, Jim Rogers, Vice President of the West Milford Township Library (WMTL) Board of Trustees, and Dr. Joan Oberer, President of the WMTL Board of Trustees accepting the new workstation from Doug Ott, FoWMTL Treasurer, and Katherine Stromberg, Vice President of the FoWMTL.
Chapters: A Book Group for Adults

Chapters is a celebration of reading and … talking! WMTL’s book discussion group for adults meets the third week of every month. To register for a morning or an evening discussion, please call 973-728-2822, email wmtl@wmtl.org, or visit the Adult/Teen Services desk.

A Man Called Ove

Wednesday, July 18, 11:00-11:45 a.m.
Thursday, July 19, 7:00-7:45 p.m.

When Ove lost his wife, he lost his life. A man of routine, he adheres to principles and rules so much so that neighbors around him feel he is an old crank. Follow along in Fredrik Backman’s debut novel as neighbors intervene, where they are not wanted, hoping to soften the hardened edges of the old widower’s shell.

The Other Einstein

Wednesday, August 15, 11:00-11:45 a.m.
Thursday, August 16, 7:00-7:45 p.m.

Mileva Marić is the only woman studying physics at Swiss Federal Polytechnic in Zurich in 1896. One of her classmates is Albert Einstein. While their shared intellectual inquisitiveness draws them together, author Marie Benedict’s historical novel illustrates how one will be remembered throughout history and one forgotten.

The Board of Trustees meets at 7:00 p.m. in the Library Meeting Room on July 10 & August 14.

Tech Help by Appointment

Need help getting started with computers, email, tablets, or the Internet? Make an appointment for individualized help. Limited to one session per month. Registration required. To sign up call 973-728-2822, or visit the Adult Services desk.

School is closed but the digital library is always open.

Creative Writing with Mark Hillringhouse
Tuesday, July 24
6:00-8:00 p.m.
This creative writing workshop is for everyone who wants to shape his or her memories and passions, pleasures, obsessions, dreams, secrets and sorrows into the poems or short pieces of prose he or she has always wanted to write.

Using prompts and other material as a way to get started, participants free write in journals. All that is required is a pen or pencil and a marble composition notebook. Everything else will be provided. We practice reading aloud and listening and everyone gets a chance to read his or her work to the group. We will explore the music of poetry and prose, the choice of language, how imagery can be used to create metaphor and meaning as well as narrative structure.

Mark Hillringhouse is a member of the English Department of Passaic County Community College. He is a published poet, essayist, and photographer whose works have been widely exhibited in area galleries. His photography and writing have been published in The American Poetry Review, The Literary Review, The New York Times, The New Jersey Monthly, The Paris Review, and in many other journals, books, anthologies and magazines.

Registration is limited to 12. Please register online at www.wmtl.org/events, by calling 973-728-2822, or emailing wmtl@wmtl.org.

“FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY” SUMMER CONCERTS

Concerts start at 7:00 p.m. and are funded by “The Friends of the Library”. Unless otherwise noted, they are held at the tent in back of the old library. In case of rain they will be held in the Town Hall Meeting Room. Please carpool as parking is limited.

July 30: Chasing June
“Chasing June” is the folk collaboration of singers and songwriters, Judy Aron and Steve Coleman. Their co-written, harmony-filled songs, and spirited up-tempo live performances have been earning the duo spots on radio and in venues throughout the northeast region since 2010.

Gerard and Diane Barros are a unique husband and wife keyboard and guitar duo, specializing in two-part harmonies. They will sweep you back in time with audience favorites from the 60’s and 70’s. Great hits of all styles are performed, ranging from Rock & Roll, British Invasion, Folk, Pop and others. In case of rain, this concert will be held in the large meeting room at the new library. (This program is partially funded by Chelsea Senior Living.)

August 13: The Desperados: “A Tribute to the Eagles”
The Desperados are a five-piece group of musicians from the Jersey Shore, bringing to life the songs of Country Rock. They will be performing their Eagles Tribute show for our listening enjoyment. Get ready to rediscover your favorite songs.

All concerts are partially funded by a grant from Orange & Rockland Electric Company.
