The British Invasion 1963-1968: BEATLES and Beyond

Tuesday, May 14
7:00-8:00 p.m.

In the 1960s, popular music took on a British accent. Following The Beatles, a wave of English singers and groups like the Rolling Stones, The Animals, Dusty Springfield, and The Kinks left its mark on American music. Simon & Garfunkel, The Lovin' Spoonful, and The Byrds responded with American music inspired by the new sounds.

WMTL invites you to share an evening with a trio of talented singer-musicians—Tina Ross, Barry Wiesenfeld, and John Foley—who will present a program of songs, stories and history, placing this great music within the context of the larger world.

Registration is required and is limited to 75. Please register online at www.wmtl.org/events, by calling 973-728-2822, or emailing wmtl@wmtl.org.

Gentle Yoga with Michelle

Monday, May 13 (registration is open)
Tuesday, June 25 (registration begins May 13)
6:30-7:45 p.m.

Sponsored by the WMTL Friends. Let go of stress and find strength, balance, and joy with gentle yoga classes led by Michelle Brook, 200 hour Registered Yoga Teacher certified by the American Yoga Academy. Bring your mat or a thick towel, and other props if you have them. There will be mats available to borrow.

Registration and completion of the required waiver form is required. Registration is limited to 15 per class. Please register online at www.wmtl.org/events or by visiting the Adult Services desk. A $5.00 per class donation to the WMTL Friends will be collected at the start of each class.

Vegetarian Diets: What to Know!

Wednesday, June 26
7:00-8:00 p.m.

Join Registered Dietitian Megan in exploring the ins and outs of a vegetarian diet. Learn about plant-based proteins and how to incorporate more vegetables into every meal! Registration is required. Please register online at www.wmtl.org/events, by calling 973-728-2822, or emailing wmtl@wmtl.org.

The Statue of Liberty

Thursday, May 23
7:00-8:00 p.m.

Enjoy an evening dedicated to Lady Liberty and learn about the construction, preservation, and symbolism of America's beloved statue. Author and photographer Kevin Woyce complements his lecture with original photography of the Statue of Liberty, Ellis Island, and New York harbor views, as well as vintage images of historic people, places, and events.

Registration is required for this free program sponsored by the WMTL Friends. Please register online at www.wmtl.org/events, by calling 973-728-2822, or emailing wmtl@wmtl.org.

George Washington Remembers New Jersey

Wednesday, June 19
7:00-8:00 p.m.

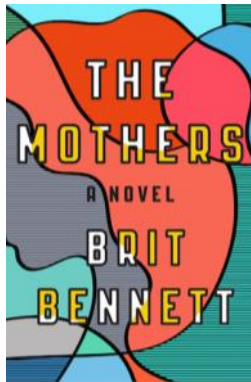

George Washington was no stranger to New Jersey. From Trenton to Princeton to Morristown to Monmouth to Middlebrook and more, the General spent more time here than in any other state. Join General Washington, portrayed by David Emerson, as he reminisces about his brightest and darkest moments during the battles and encampments of the “Cockpit of the Revolution.”

David Emerson makes his living by being a character. For over 30 years, David has worked at living history museums as an independent storyteller, teaching history through the eyes of a “person of the past.” He is a veteran of Colonial Williamsburg, Plimoth Plantation, Morristown National Historical Park, and the Old Barracks Museum. As an Irish shanachie, David is known for tales that are so convincing “you can almost smell the peat.”

Registration is required and is limited to 75 for this free program sponsored by the WMTL Friends. Please register online at www.wmtl.org/events, by calling 973-728-2822, or emailing wmtl@wmtl.org.

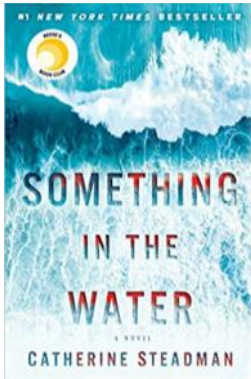

Chapters

Chapters is a celebration of reading and ... talking! WMTL’s book discussion group for adults meets the third week of every month. To register for a morning or an evening discussion, please call 973-728-2822, email wmtl@wmtl.org, or visit the Adult/Teen Services desk.

The Mothers

Wednesday, May 15, 11:00-11:45 a.m.
Thursday, May 16, 7:00-7:45 p.m.
In Brit Bennett’s debut novel, the collective voice of the Mothers of the Upper Room Chapel narrate the story of Nadia, Luke, and Aubrey who each harbor secrets, shoulder burdens, and cope with the lingering consequences of past decisions.

Something in the Water

Wednesday, June 12, 11:00-11:45 a.m.
Thursday, June 13, 7:00-7:45 p.m.
As frightening as it is funny, British actor Catherine Steadman’s debut novel is an unbearably tense psychological thriller about newlyweds Erin and Mark, whose lives take a sudden lurch in the wrong direction when they are scuba diving and chance upon – yes, you guessed it – something in the water.

Electronic Bulletin Boards

WMTL has always welcomed the posting of community activities, events, and services. This popular practice, however, has left our cork bulletin boards cluttered with paper announcements, and with rarely enough space to post everything submitted.

Going forward, the Library will be posting notices and announcements only on its Electronic Bulletin Boards (EBBs). Located in our first floor Lobby and second floor Gallery, our EBBs were generously donated by the Friends of WMTL.

For complete details about paperless postings at WMTL, including format, application, procedure, and policy please visit our Electronic Bulletin Board Policy page at: <http://www.wmtl.org/ebb>.

Circle of Voices, North: Poetry Circle

Monday, May 20

6:45-7:45 p.m.

Join poet Laurie Byro and Circle of Voices, North for an evening of lively discussion featuring the poetry of Simon Armitage. Please register by calling 973-728-2822, emailing wmtl@wmtl.org, or visiting the Adult/Teen Services desk. Poems to be discussed are available at the Adult/Teen Services desk. All are invited to bring a favorite poem by the featured poet to share at the evening's discussion.

The Gallery @ the Library

Did you know that the open space on the 2nd floor is called the Gallery? Well, that space will soon be true to its name.

WMTL, in partnership with the Township of West Milford, is pleased to invite local artists to apply to exhibit their works in the Gallery of the West Milford Township Library and Community Center. The Library is proud to celebrate the talents of our community members by highlighting their works.

WMTL is delighted to present the works of local photographers, under the auspices of the West Milford Camera Club, for its inaugural exhibit. From May through June, visitors will have the opportunity to view these photographs throughout the Gallery.

Applications for future exhibits are now being accepted. For details on exhibiting artwork in the Gallery, including policy, procedures, and application, please visit: <http://www.wmtl.org/exhibits>. As an educational and cultural institution, WMTL welcomes exhibits of interest to the general public, with preference given to local artists.
